Stages of Discovery 2021: Covid-19 Edition

Stages workshops for 2021 will be different from the past several years, a direct result of the Coronavirus pandemic. To keep everyone safe and comply with health guidelines, workshops will be scheduled individually and registration will be ala carte rather than a three week block. There will be no final production but there will be a showing of the students' work and monologue performances. Workshops are scheduled July 19-22, July 26-29, and August 2-6.

Sessions will be held at Bay City Players (air-conditioned) theatre from 9:00 AM to 11:30 PM and 1:00 PM to 3:30 PM Monday through Thursday. Monologue prep and performances are Friday, August 6. All participants will be required to complete daily COVID-19 screening, wear face coverings, and practice social distancing. COVID-19 guidelines will be provided closer to the program and reflect current recommendations from the Center for Disease Control and Michigan Department of Health and Human Services.

Each workshop will have specific ages of eligibility. Workshops are $10 each or $80 for eight or more workshops. Workshops have limited capacity and are first-come, first-serve. Please register for workshops by calling Bay City Players at 989.893.5555. If we are unavailable, please leave a message with contact info and best time to reach you. You can also register in-person during Box Office hours (Monday through Thursday 10:00 AM-2:00 PM). Payment is due upon registration.

Registration deadline: July 8, 2021 or when class limits are reached.

Students will, in some cases, be expected to purchase supplies for the workshops. The workshop schedule is available below.

Please plan to arrive a few minutes early so that the workshops can begin on time. Check in for the workshops will be in the Bay City Players lobby.

Note: Please indicate any pertinent medical condition/allergies during registration.
